Proposition 28 Annual Report Arts and Music in Schools Funding

Name: Nueva Vista Language Academy

CDS Code: 1563404-0120139

Allocation Year: 2023-24

Description of the Prop 28 Arts Education Program(s) Funded:

Nueva Vista Language Academy (NVLA) acknowledges the importance of arts and music programs in cultivating critical thinking, fostering social-emotional learning, and building cultural awareness. NVLA did not have any expenditures for the Proposition 28 Arts and Music in Schools Program in 2023-2024, as other funding sources were utilized to support our growing arts program. Plans for the future use of these funds include creating a drumline and drama program as well as enhancing our string program, rejuvenating our jazz band, expanding our visual arts program including photography and graphic arts, increasing our dance offerings, and providing professional development opportunities for our visual and performing arts team members including onsite clinics with field experts. In addition, students will have opportunities to attend live events and performances and art exhibits as well as visit college and university art and music programs. Students will also have the opportunity to participate in school plays, dance recitals, art exhibits, and instrumental and vocal music performances.
